SAMPLE ITINERARY ARGENTINA PERFORMANCE TOUR

(itinerary subject to change)

DAY ONE: BUENOS AIRES ARRIVAL (D)

Morning Arrive into Buenos Aires Ezeiza International Airport. Proceed with immigration and customs formalities. Meet your local Argentinean Tour Manager and board the coach.

Buenos Aires is a world-class city of some 10 million people, located on the shores of the Rio de la Plata, adjacent to the Atlantic Ocean. Established in 1536, Buenos Aires has always been an important city of trade. A favored destination of European immigrants in the 19th and 20th Centuries, Buenos Aires often seems more European than South American. Home of the Tango and Evita, Buenos Aires is Argentina's political, economic and culture capitol.

Enjoy a sightseeing tour of Buenos Aires. This tour will give you an overview of Buenos Aires' history and culture as seen through its neighborhoods and historical landmarks.

Stops to include the Plaza de Mayo (home of the Casa Rosada – Argentina's presidential palace and the Metropolitan Cathedral – center of Argentina's Catholic Church and former home of the current Pope Francis I) and Calle Florida.

Afternoon Lunch on own along the pedestrian-only Calle Florida in central Buenos Aires. Transfer to local hotel and check-in. Enjoy time to get settled into your rooms.

Evening Welcome Dinner as a group followed by an early night for some well-earned rest.

DAY TWO: BUENOS AIRES (B,D) – Performance #1

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel. This morning, enjoy further sightseeing in Buenos Aires including a visit to the Recoleta Cemetery (final resting place of Evita Peron and one of the most opulent cemeteries in the world) and a chance to shop at the excellent Recoleta Outdoor Markets.

Afternoon Lunch on own in the Recoleta neighborhood. This afternoon, transfer to a local school. Group rehearsal at a local school. After the rehearsal, enjoy an Outreach Exchange Performance at a local school.

Evening Enjoy dinner and a chance to socialize with hosts. Afterwards, return to the hotel.

DAY THREE: BUENOS AIRES → ROSARIO (B.L.D)

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
Check-out of the hotel, load the coach and depart for Rosario.
En route, enjoy a visit to an authentic Argentine ‘estancia’ (cattle ranch). Experience the life of the ‘gauchos’ (cowboys) through roping demonstrations, rides on horse-driven carts, plus folklore dancing and singing.

Afternoon Lunch as a group at the ranch.
After lunch, continue to Rosario.

Late Afternoon Arrive into Rosario and check-in to a local hotel – time to settle into your hotel.

With a population of approximately 1 million people, Rosario is tied with Córdoba for the title of Argentina’s second-largest city. Settled in the early 18th century, Rosario grew briskly in the mid-19th century as a transportation center for crops, beef and leather goods making their way to Buenos Aires for overseas export.

Evening Dinner as a group in Rosario then return to the hotel.

DAY FOUR: ROSARIO (B) – Performance #2

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
This morning, enjoy a tour of Rosario including the Plaza 25 de Mayo (and the cathedral), the Paraná Riverfront (called La Cosanera), the National Monument to the Flag and Parque Independencia (wonderful views of Rosario).

Afternoon: This afternoon, enjoy some free time for shopping and lunch on own in central Rosario.
Depart for this evening’s performance venue – possibly the Teatro El Circulo (TBC – or similar).
Group rehearsal at tonight’s concert venue.

Evening Dinner on own nearby tonight’s concert venue.
After dinner, return to the theatre and get ready for tonight’s concert.
Performance at a local venue in Rosario (possibly at the Teatro El Circulo – TBC or similar) – this concert may be shared with a local ensemble.
After the concert, return to the hotel.

DAY FIVE: ROSARIO → CÓRDOBA (B,D)

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
Check-out of the hotel, load the coach and depart for Córdoba (~ 4 hour drive).

Afternoon Lunch on own in central Córdoba upon arrival.

Founded in 1573 and once rivaling Buenos Aires in importance, the colonial city of Córdoba was a major crossroads for connecting the Spanish colonies. Today, Córdoba still boasts some of Latin America's best universities and finest colonial architecture. Surrounded by the Sierra Chicas Mountains, this lively city is a delight at every turn.

This afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of Córdoba including the El Centro (with its Jesuit Block, San Martin Square and the Cathedral), the Nueva Córdoba (the main student quarter) and University City (home of the oldest university in South America - Universidad Nacional de Córdoba).

Transfer to your hotel and settle into your rooms.

Evening Dinner as a group in Córdoba then return to the hotel.

DAY SIX: CÓRDOBA (B,D) – Performance #3

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
This morning, enjoy a tour into the Sierra Chica Mountains to visit the village of La Cumbrecita.

Founded by German and Swiss immigrants in the 1930s, the pedestrian-only village of La Cumbrecita is a fascinating mix of Swiss Alpine village and Argentine sensibilities.

Afternoon Enjoy time to explore the village.
Lunch on own in La Cumbrecita.

Transfer to this evening's performance venue – possibly the Teatro del Libertador San Martín (TBC – or similar).

Group rehearsal at tonight's concert venue.

Evening Dinner as a group nearby tonight's concert venue.

After dinner, return to the theatre and get ready for tonight's concert.

Performance at a local venue in Córdoba (possibly at the Teatro del Libertador San Martín – TBC) – this concert may be shared with a local ensemble.

After the concert, return to the hotel.

DAY EIGHT: BUENOS AIRES (B,D) – Performance #4

Morning	Breakfast as a group at the hotel. This morning, transfer to the Teatro Colón, one of the world's most important opera houses, for a guided tour of this marvelous facility, including visits to the costume and wardrobe design and repair shops.
---------	---

The Colón was completed in 1908 representing the ambitions of Buenos Aires' growing elite families to emulate the style of the finest cities of Europe. The theater's magnificent performance hall, La Sala, has seating for an audience of 2,478. Host to performances by some of the world's finest performing groups, the Colón is Buenos Aires' most-valued cultural treasures.
