French Catholics founded Montreal in 1642 at the confluence of the St. Lawrence River and the Ottawa River. Montreal is the largest French speaking community outside of France, though its sizable English speaking population gives the city a fascinating ethnic mix. Today, with its café culture and “joie-de-vivre” attitude, Montreal possesses a vibrancy and excitement unlike anywhere else in the world.

Dinner as a group in Montreal then return to the hotel.

DAY THREE: MONTREAL (B) – Workshop

Morning Breakfast as a group at the hotel.
After breakfast, transfer to the McGill University Schulich School of Music.
Enjoy a workshop with a member of the music faculty at the McGill University Schulich School of Music (TBC).

The world's largest underground pedestrian network shelters Montrealers from both the scorching heat of summer and the frigid winter winds. More than 30 kilometers of passageways link the stations of Montreal's Metro and contain (at last count) 1,600 boutiques, 200 restaurants, 34 cinemas and 1,600 apartments.

Later this afternoon, enjoy a visit to Montreal's Olympic Park including admission to the wonderful Biodôme.

The delightful Biodôme houses replications of four ecosystems: a tropical rainforest, a Laurentian forest, the St. Lawrence marine system, and the Labrador Coast and sub-polar regions. Visitors walk through each and hear the animals, smell the flora, and (except in the polar region, which is behind glass) feel the changes in temperature.

Evening Dinner on your own in Montreal and this evening is free.
Possibly attend a performance by the Orchestre symphonique de Montréal (subject to concert schedule).
